

It's September, Theatre Friends!

*"O sweet September, thy first breezes bring
The dry leaf's rustle and the squirrel's laughter,
The cool fresh air whence health and vigor spring
And promise of exceeding joy hereafter."*

— George Arnold

Your Colorado Theatre Guild looks forward to supporting our members and giving our venues a platform to share their vision going forward, in addition to opening a space for more member interaction. We seek to build a coalition of diverse artists and specialists in their field; who can add to our engaging workshops and other offerings our committees have in store for you.

Statewide Event To Be Rescheduled

The Colorado Theatre Guild & The Denver Actors Fund have made the thoughtful and hard decision to postpone the planned September 5th Colorado Theatre Block Parties that were scheduled to be held in 4 locations throughout the state of Colorado (Metro Denver, Northern Colorado, Southern Colorado & The Mountains).

Workshop Committee News

Last month, we were excited to present "Put Your Best Face Forward: Self-Tape Tech Tips with Sheila Ivy Traister," Award-winning Actor, critically-acclaimed Director and multifaceted Coach Sheila Ivy Traister led a fun, interactive, online session where participants learned about the equipment and skills needed for basic self-tape or online submissions.

Next month, we are thrilled to present Part 2 of our series on Racial and Social Justice in Theatre, "Effective Allyship in Action," October 10, 2021 from 7-8:30 pm MST. Free for Members/$15 for Non-Members. Join us for an interactive experience that blends theatre-based learning, psychology, and storytelling, to help us discover healing-centered practices that can inform our relationships with ourselves and others.
