

Happy August, Readers!

After 2 long years, CTG wants to give a big and heart felt thanks you to all of you for making our first in-person/virtual Henry Awards a sensation! Our celebration of theatre would not be possible without you, and it would not be possible without the people behind the scenes who work to improve and make it better!

What is your name and role with CTG/ the Henry's?

Barb Thomas, and I'm the Henry Coordinator for the Colorado Theatre Guild.

What does your role entail?

I communicate and coordinate with CTG organizational members & judges for all Henry judging aspects, and oversee Henry judge training..

What made you want to take on this role?

I started with CTG as a Henry Judge. When I saw the ad for Henry Coordinator, I knew I wanted to do it. Professionally, I am very organized and I excel at project management. I wasn't aware of any roles at the time in the theatre community that required these skills, so I was excited to do it.

What's one thing you enjoy about your role?

There are so many things I love about my job! If I had to pick one thing, it would be all the people I've met. The CTG Board members, the judges and the theatre producers...they are all such amazing people.

Any final remarks or thoughts you would like to share with our readers?

Theatre is my passion, and I am so grateful that I am able to contribute to the Colorado theatre community. I love what I do!

New Workshop This Month!

The CTG Workshop Committee is looking forward to bringing you another engaging workshop this month. Alex Miller (OnStage Colorado) will be holding an online workshop, Dark Monday Marketing, on Monday, August 22, 2022 @ 7pm, TONIGHT. Cost-effective tips, tools and strategies to market your production will be shared. Other guests panelists include Matt Meier (Ligature Creative) and Iliana Lucero Baron (Chair, CTG Communications Committee).

The poster features a glowing lightbulb with a DNA helix inside, set against a dark background. The text 'Dark Monday Marketing' is written in a white, handwritten-style font. Below the title, it says 'Up your game to promote your shows with minimal time and money.' and 'Colorado Theatre Guild, OnStage Colorado and Ligature Creative are here to help with Dark Monday Marketing - a webinar aimed at helping you promote your show with some simple tips and practices.' The date and time are 'Monday, August 22, 2022 @ 7-8:30pm MST' and 'Free for Members, $15 for Non-Members'. A list of topics to be covered includes: 'Creating a solid media list', 'Establishing a regular cadence to email those contacts', 'Press releases vs. more informal emails', 'Maximizing available calendars and formatting your listing properly', 'Pitching feature stories to media', 'Inviting media to review your show', 'How to effectively use social media', and 'Getting the most bang for your buck out of production photos'. The website 'coloradotheatreguild.org' is listed at the bottom. A red circular stamp on the right says 'LIMITED AVAILABILITY REGISTER TODAY'. 2022 Henry Awards: Thank You!

The 2022 Henry Awards brought us together after not being able to congregate due to Covid-19. Our last live awards show took place in 2019. In 2020, we brought a fully virtual awards ceremony. And, on July 25th of this year, we were back LIVE at the Arvada Center.

Thank you to all who attended, live and virtually. Thanks to the CTG Board, Committee members, Marcus Turner, and all volunteers. Special thanks to Alicia Young and Jerry Macauley for helming this year's Henry awards.

In truth, there are too many people to thank, so please accept my earnest "Thank you" to everyone who contributed to this year's Henry awards.
