

Happy Spring, Everyone!

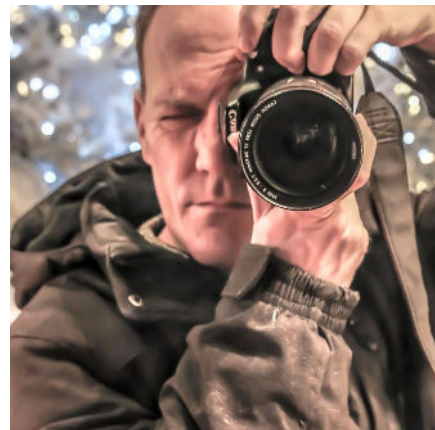

"Here comes the sun; and I say, it's alright."
— The Beatles

Your Colorado Theatre Guild looks forward to supporting our members and giving our venues a platform to share their vision going forward, in addition to opening a space for more member interaction. We seek to build a coalition of diverse artists and specialists in their field; who can add to our engaging workshops and other offerings our committees have in store for you.

Spotlight: John Moore Broadens Colorado Arts Coverage

John Moore, the former longtime theater reporter for The Denver Post, is back covering the Colorado arts scene as Senior Arts Journalist for the daily Denver Gazette – the successor to the Rocky Mountain News and a sister paper to the 150-year old Colorado Springs Gazette. John has been providing a weekly column for the paper for more than a year, and he decided to accept a full-time role in February.

Click here for the full article

Lending A Hand: Colorado Attorneys For The Arts (CAFTA) Provides Pro Bono Legal Referrals

Each quarter, we'll be reminding you that Colorado Attorneys for the Arts (CAFTA), a program of Colorado Business Committee for the Arts (CBCA), offers assistance to those in the creative arts. As stated on their website, "Colorado Attorneys for the Arts (CAFTA) is a pro bono legal referral service connecting artists, performers, cultural organizations and creative business to volunteer attorneys. CAFTA also offers educational presentations, webinars and resources." Be sure to check out their website and social media platforms.

For more information, visit their website

Save The Date: Colorado Green Alliance Formation and Community Discussions

Theatre work is an essential tool for global change. We have the power and responsibility to make the world a better place with our theatre making, and climate action does not have to be separate! To find out how you can use the work you are already doing to fight climate change, join the first in a series of discussions about the intersection of climate action and theatre. You'll meet other practitioners in Colorado committed to sustainable arts practices for theatre making. Speakers will include members of the Colorado theatre community and the Chicago chapter of BGA.

Read about the Broadway Green Alliance and the movement here in Colorado:
[Broadway Green Alliance
Steps Toward Sustainable Theatre](#)

This event will lead to the creation of a statewide chapter of the Broadway Green Alliance with the option of creating more specific chapters if needed. Email cotheatreguild@gmail.com with any questions.
Registration in advance for this meeting is highly recommended.

Presented with the support of the Colorado Theatre Guild and the Broadway Green Alliance.

Click here to register

CTG 2022 Unified Auditions Coming Soon

The CTG Unified Auditions planned for early May 2022 will be delayed until the fall of 2022. We look forward to announcing a new date by summer. The auditions were originally scheduled to only include non-union members. When Actors Equity Association announced Equity members can attend live auditions, CTG decided to postpone so we could include our entire acting community. We are delighted to partner with the Denver Center for the Performing Arts and look forward to including more theatre companies throughout our region to observe these auditions.

Click here for the calendar link through Facebook

Seeking Henry Awards Judges

Becoming a Henry Award Judge is a great way to learn, serve our community and attend some great Colorado productions! All theatre-lovers welcome, Click below to find out more.

Click here for more information and application

New Standards For Colorado Theatre Makers Who Wish To Protect and Support Our Community

We wanted to share a new policy being implemented by the Colorado Theatre Guild.

Starting January 1, 2022, all responsible parties wanting to post audition notices will be required to indicate if your company uses the Community Standards for Theatre for Colorado, a set of standards created elsewhere but being implemented in Colorado, or if you are not currently using safety standards before postings are approved. This applies to anyone posting audition notices through our website and through our Facebook community group.

Click here for the full article

Workshop Committee News

The committee is busy planning some great workshops for the rest of the year! We look forward to sharing more info on workshops soon focusing on a variety of subjects, such as Sound Design, Financial Literacy, Auditioning, Directing and more. Is there a subject that you'd like to know more about or help facilitate? Click the link below and take out brief survey.

Click here to take our survey

Thank you, Theatre Friends!

We appreciate your continued support through donations. Your participation is a vital part of this organization's success, and our love and generosity during difficult times show the resilience and beauty of this community! We look forward to continuing our work in supporting and engaging with you.

Make a donation today!