

It's November, Theatre Friends!

“Don't wait until the fourth Thursday in November, to sit with family and friends to give thanks. Make every day a day of Thanksgiving!”
— Charmaine J. Forde

Your Colorado Theatre Guild looks forward to supporting our members and giving our venues a platform to share their vision going forward, in addition to opening a space for more member interaction. We seek to build a coalition of diverse artists and specialists in their field; who can add to our engaging workshops and other offerings our committees have in store for you.

Phamaly's Rebellious New Artistic Spirit, Ben Raanan

For most of us in the arts, the pandemic was a lonely time. That's why when I had a chance to have an in-person dinner with my dear friend Regan Linton (outgoing Artistic Director of Phamaly Theatre Company) and meet Phamaly's new Artistic Director Ben Raanan, I was thrilled. Celebrating National Native Heritage Month

November is National Native Heritage Month. Last month, we shared a number of resources on our Facebook page regarding Indigenous Peoples' Day and theatre making across the continent and globally . Those resources, and some additional ones, have been compiled into a list for you to keep and access at your leisure. We will be adding to the list as other resources become available. Our hope is to add this list and other similar resources to a dedicated space on our website in 2022. Do take time to read (and in some cases watch) everything on this list!
